

Royal Flying Doctor Service

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

The Royal Flying Doctor Service in Western Australia (RFDS) is an iconic and innovative charity, which saves lives and improves patient outcomes.

We believe everyone should have access to the best healthcare, regardless of where they live, work or travel across Western Australia.

Our essential service

emergency retrievals

primary healthcare

telehealth consultations

medical chests

FY21 snapshot

EMERGENCY AEROMEDICAL RETRIEVALS

10,097

MEDICAL CHESTS

594

PRIMARY HEALTHCARE PATIENTS

10,316

KILOMETRES FLOWN

9.03m

Common diagnoses

1. injury & poisoning
2. circulatory system
3. digestive system

Source: RFDS WA data FY21

South West health profile

175,904 population

20,831 potentially preventable hospitalisations

16% unable to receive hospital care in region

1.6x death rate for transport accidents compared with State

Source: WA Country Health Service Regional Health Profile 2018

Our COVID-19 response

To date we have transported 134 confirmed or suspected COVID-19 cases in WA, including:

KIMBERLEY REGION

47

PILBARA REGION

27

MIDWEST REGION

20

GOLDFIELDS REGION

14

WHEATBELT REGION

9

GREAT SOUTHERN REGION

7

Source: RFDS WA data as of 26 August 2021
*Two patients transported from Darwin, Northern Territory

Our services in the South West

545 patients transferred (106 < 15 years old)
Average: 2 per day, 11 per week

106 patients transferred were <15 years old and 30 patients were <1 month old

Most common diagnoses: 156 injury & poisoning, 122 circulatory system and 98 digestive system

Source: RFDS WA data FY21

